

DANIELS WINS CASE AGAINST SWANSON

Judgment for $18,000 rental, restoration of the premises, of $1000 damages and $4500 attorney's fees, was awarded to Max Daniels against the Swanson Theatre circuit and W. H. Swanson by Judge A. R. Barnes in the district court today.

The action arose out of the abandonment of the Strand theatre by the Swanson circuit and the alleged breach of contract by officials of the circuit. As a defense, it was set up that Daniels had failed to properly heat the establishment and that only property belonging to the circuit had been removed when the theatre was abandoned.
