

Film Premiere Set in S. L.

World premiere of "The Desperadoes," new Columbia technicolor motion picture filmed near Kanab, Utah, will be held in Salt Lake City, Wednesday, March 10, at the Utah theater, it was announced by M. H. (Mike) Newman of Columbia Pictures corporation, who arrived from Hollywood to discuss premiere plans with Tracy Barham, vice president and general manager of Intermountain Theaters, Inc.

Mr. Newman visited Governor

Herbert B. Maw Tuesday morning in his office at the state capitol and invited him to be a guest of honor at the premiere. Members of the state senate and house of representatives also were invited to attend.

"The Desperadoes" was not only filmed in Utah, but tells a story of Utah in 1863, Mr. Newman explained. It stars Randolph Scott, Claire Trevor, Glenn Ford, Evelyn Keyes, Edgar Buchanan and Guinn "Big Boy" Williams.
