

Movie Stars on Hand for S. L. Premiere of 'Desert Fury'

The technicolor Hal Wallis production of "Desert Fury" premiered in Salt Lake Wednesday at the Utah theater and to add to the excitement of the Centennial week stars, Elizabeth Scott and Burt Lancaster were on hand for a personal appearance.

In their curtain speech to the audience Elizabeth Scott and Burt Lancaster changed the already happy ending in the movie to an even happier ending a la "clinch" . . . the well packed theater resounded with applause as the stars came back again and again.

The melodramatic show is full of emotional conflict for the gorgeous Miss Scott while John Hodiak goes badman for a change and Burt Lancaster is the disheveled haired boy who fortunately turns up at just the proper moments. Wendell Corey takes acting honors as the cold-blooded racketeer.
