

Manager Is Named For Utah Theater

Norman E. Sprowl, former Hollywood motion picture executive, has been appointed manager of the Utah theater, Harry David, vice president and general manager of Intermountain Theaters, Inc., said Thursday.

Mr. Sprowl succeeds Charles Pincus, who became manager of the new Centre theater.

Mr. Sprowl for more than 10 years was associated with Fox West Coast theaters and was business manager for Universal Pictures corporation. He is a former manager of the Carthay Circle theater at Los Angeles.

Le Grande Campbell will continue as assistant manager of the Utah theater.
