

New Theatre at Sugarhouse Opens

After being redeccorated the Forum, formerly known as the Hyland theatre, staged its opening last night before a capacity house, with a big double bill and an excellent musical feature by the Margaret Devine trio.

The theatre has been closed down for the past two weeks to permit a thorough renovation and remodeling.

The opening bills are announced as follows: "Welcome Stranger" and a Clyde Cook comedy, "Should Sailors Marry?" The Devine trio will be heard as a special feature on the opening night.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the Forum will present Mary Pickford in "Little Annie Rooney," with "Our Gang" comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday Betty Compson and House Peters will appear in "Moving Day." Tom Mix will close the week in the title role of "The Best Bad Man."
