Utah Filmed Picture to Be Shown at Utah

"My Friend Flicka," a tender story of a boy, his parents and his horse, filmed in the outstanding scenery of Utah's Dixie national forest, will be shown in technicolor at a world's premiere Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. at the Utah theater.

The Twentieth Century-Fox film tells the story of a sensitive boy and a young colt which becomes to the boy a symbol for all that is beautiful in the world.

Roddy McDowall, who is in Salt Lake City for a personal appearance at the premiere, plays the part of the boy in the picture.

His mother, an understanding, lovely person, is played by Rita Johnson, and the father by Preston Foster.

The story is based on the best selling novel by Mary O'Hara and pictures life on a typical western ranch.
